

Love is in the Air in Old Town Newhall

A commercial holiday typically associated with the illusive glitz of diamonds, intensity of striking red roses and the idealistic influences of tragic love stories, the essence of St. Valentine's Day draws nearer as incarnate valentine's ponder the perfect celebrations and gifts for their loved ones.

Cupid's arrow aimed, fired and profoundly struck Old Town Newhall creating the perfect local destination to celebrate Valentine's Day. There is no need to head out of town this Valentine's Day. All the romance, special gifts and exquisite dining opportunities you are looking for are in Old Town Newhall.

This Valentine's Day beat the crowds and late reservations and give your Valentine something truly unique, a Valentine's day or night on the town in Old Town Newhall. The perfect place to dine, catch a live production at the theatre, purchase a special gift and beautiful flowers, and just enjoy each others company, Old Town Newhall boasts a variety of novelty retail shops including Fresh and Propinquities that offer distinct and exclusive fashions that make the perfect gift for a special night on the town. Whether you are looking forward to a tantalizing valentine's breakfast at Egg Plantation, a quick lunch at Railroad Café or Maria's Italian American Deli, or a romantic and authentic Sonoran dinner at El Trocadero, spoil your Valentine with all that Old Town Newhall has to offer.

-more-

Featuring some of Los Angeles' most-respected and talented performers, take the opportunity to enjoy the Repertory East Playhouse's rendition of A Street Car Named Desiree or the Canyon Theatre Guild's production of Disney's High School Musical. For a truly unique and mind-opening historical experience, tour the Wm. S. Hart museum to learn more about the silent film star's contribution to western heritage, and his love for his vacation home right here in Santa Clarita, or clear your minds and relax your bodies during a refreshing class at Yoga Yoga.

Conclude the afternoon or evening with a stroll down Main Street, a sweet treat at Jasmine's bakery and a beautiful custom bouquet of fragrant flowers from Lissette's Flowers. Everything you need and more to make this Valentine's a special one is right in Old Town Newhall. Off the beaten path, and blending the small town charm that distinguishes Old Town Newhall with chic cosmopolitan appeal. Old Town Newhall is the place to be.

For additional information regarding the businesses located in Old Town Newhall, as well as a calendar of upcoming special events and theatre productions in Old Town Newhall, please visit MyNewMainStreet.com.

###